"ELIJAH" DOWIE, HIS WIFE AND SON AND THE

DOWIE BACK WITH A $1,000,000 CONVERT

She Is a Beautiful Swiss Girl and There Was a Rumor on the Lucania that She Is the Bride-Elect of the "Prophet Elijah's' Son.

Passengers Complained to the Captain of an Affront Offered Them by Dowie in the Smoking-Room, Where He Objected to Cards and Tobacco.

partenger list of the Cunarder Lucania as John Alexander Dowie, "Elijah's" wife, Jane, his and her unkissed son, A. I. Gladstone Dowie, and a bodyguard arrived in this city to-day from Eng-

Hofer, a beautiful Swiss. She is a bionde and in appearance anything but a Zionite. She is of medium height, with Miss Hofer was kept to the fore by "Elijah," who when he was asked how he had ever induced her to adopt his beliefs said that converts were no novelties; not even converts worth $1,000,000, which he claimed the young woman pos-

There was a report that Miss Hofer was the wife of the unkissed son. On t ehpassenger list appears the name "Mrs. Gladstone Dowie." The ship's that no "Mrs. Gladstor.e appeared among the passengers on the way across the ocean and No one in the party referred to Miss Hofer as "Mrs. Gladstone Dowie." The "Mrs. Gladstone Dowie" booking was made at Liverpool, and passengers believed that the marriage of the unkissed son had been arranged to take place on the other side, but that it was prevented by the hurried flight which Elijah and his party had to will see him led to the altar in Zion

When the unkissed one was asked whether he was married he became red in the face after the manner of his 'Mind your own business. Go and ask e people on the ship."

"Who is Mrs. Gladstone Dowie?"

"Go away, go away!" The Lucania sailed from Liverpoo on Saturday afternoon last at 4.30 o'clock, and Dowle and his outfit kept pretty quiet until Monday evening. A number of the passengers were in the smoking-room, some playing whist. cards, when a piping infant voic came through the open doorway.

"Peace to thee." It said gently. The players turned and saw Dowle and when he felt that all eyes were toward him he shouted:

His Kindly Warning.

"Elijah III." who appeared on the talk, that when a ship's officer on the high seas told him to do a thing that it would be best for him to do so.

The plain language used to Dowle on Tuesday had quieting results so far as the smoking-room was concerned. He kept away from that part of the ship, but he tortured the rest of the passengers, with an incessant chatter about "Elijah III.." Zion City and the industries of his Illinois settlement. He told those who were not informed about him and his work that he had "15,000 people in Hostock Tried to Train Him.

Among the Lucania's passengers was George F. Bostock, the animal king, and as the liner was leaving Liverpool he received a cablegram which read: "A. B. C. D." He smiled when he had deciphered the letters, and on Thursday morning last proceeded to carry out the suggestion of the message, which was that he try to tame Elijah II.
"Peace to theer" said the animal sage, which was that he try to tame Ellijah II.

"Peace to thee?" said the animal king in the tone of voice he employs when huating tigers in the jungle.

"Peace to thee. brother." purred Dowle, who was holding out both hands to take a cup of coffee from a steward, the while he chewed a piece of candy. "I see you are getting some coffee, Dr. Dowle," said Bostock.

"No, brother, it is not for myself. I never touch coffee. I abhor it. This cup is for Miss Hofer, whom I hope some day, to induce to forego drinking this nerve-wrecking stuff. She is coming to Zion," ing to Zion."

You're eating candy," remarked Bostock in the jungle tone described. He caught "Elliah's eve for a second.

"Yes, I am eating candy, brother," answered Dowle. "I am very fond of andy, but I never eat any but what is made in Zion. I carry it with me all the time." he time."
Bostock turned away hopelessly. When the ship reached Quarantine to-day a elegram was handed to him which ead: "You tame lions; why don't you rv Dowie?" but the showman made no turther effort to get near "Elijah."

Fled from the Tug.

A tug carrying friends and employees the showman went down the bay to eet him, and at the sound of their proach Dowle put his head out of his atteroom. When he saw what it was turned pale and locked himself in a appearing on deck again until the in was being warped into her pier. Elliah II. greeted the newspaper in with. "You whelps, what do you unt now? I have nothing to say to u. and all I have to say will be said my lecture hall to-morrow morning dafternoon."

"Lies, lies, lies; nothing but lies!" he shouted.
"You have a very handsome convert in Miss Hofer," remarked a reporter.
"Converts are no novelty to me. I won't discuss this one. I have made thousands of converts on this trip—500 in one place."

BARGE OFFICE MEN GLOOMY.

Brooklyn Firemen Beat Them in Baseball Game. Inspectors at the Barge Office are "You stinkpots! You lost to God stinkpots! Stop playing eards this instant and throw those vile cigars and cigarettes away! I warn you now before it is too late!"

A committee of passengers waited on the chief officer and chief steward of the Lucania and asked if they were to be instalted that way. They were told favor of the Brocklyntia.

PEDDLERS ACCUSE

of Charge that City Official Refused to Grant Permits to the Ewen Street Court, Brooklyn,

would not issue any permits, because A committee of passengers waited on the chief officer and chief steward of the Lucenia and asked it they were to be insulted that way. They were told that such actions as they complained of would not be tolerated, and Dowie was put to be for the night, with a sharp reminder that he would better keep a still tongue in his head.

He did until Tuesday evening, when the scene in the smoking-room of Monday was repeated, and Dowie was awain fold, but in sterner and strong sallor

HOOO HOOO HOUSE DESTROYED

BY FIRE YESTERDAY

Would not issue any permits, because slip. The prisoners were released on station-house bonds. According to the According to the According to the According to the Cabman's story Christy and Hall were in an automobile. Station-house bonds. According to the Cabman's story Christy and Hall were in an automobile of the Produce Exchange.

All the peddiers were discharged, and Magistrate O'Reilly delivered a few will he produce a few will he developments in the case in a form of their automobile, which and 100 miles east of the Nantucket Lightship. The vessel will probably dock at about 8 A. M. Ito-morrow.

HOOO HOOO HOUSE DESTROYED

BY FIRE YESTERDAY

BY FIRE YESTERDAY

Wouldn't come to see him before they didn't come to making to much money.

All the pediers were deskindent to gr they didn't come to see him before they Howard Chandler Christy, the artist, of Huntington, L. I., and Charles F. Hall, of No. 205 West Ninety-first in the Ewen Street Court, Brooklyn, to-day prompted him to ask if Alderman Brenner is the Czar of the Sixteenth Ward. He said he proposed to find out, and to that end ordered an investigation.

A horde of Sixteenth Ward peddlers were arraigned before him on a charge of having no permits for their carts and soda water stands. Through Joseph Solotovsky, President of the Merchants' Association of the ward, they explained that they had asked Alderman Brenner for permits, but that he had refused to grant them.

"Our association tried to get permits for these men from the Alderman," said Solotovsky. "but he told us he would not issue any permits, because the form the said solotovsky. "but he told us he would not issue any permits, because distinctions and the forman station-bours house house house house house house house house house house."

M'ADOO GIVES UP SEIZED PROPERTY

graph Instruments Taken in Raid to Officers of the Distributing Company.

Commissioner McAdoo turned over to day the thirty telephones, the Morse telegraph instruments and the switchboard seized by the police in their raid on the New York and New Jersey Dis-tributing Company, No. 13 Park Place, tributing Company, No. 13 Park Place, to the onicers of mat company.

A writ of replevin issued by Judge Finn in the First Municipal Court, calling upon the Commissioner to deliver the property, left him no alternative. A bond was required of Dan o'Reilly, the attorney for the contestants, that in case the decision of the court in which the matters at issue will be finally tried goes against them the property seized will be returned to the police.

The raid was made a few months ago by Inspector Schmittberger and his men on what was alleged to be a pool-room distributing information on the races.

ALLEGED $1,000,000 CONVERT, ALL HERE FROM EUROPE. TO TOW SLOUM DOWN THE RIVER

Charred Remnant of Death Ship Will Be Taken from Scene of Disaster to Erie Basin for Official Scrutiny.

THRONGS WAITED TO SEE PASSAGE TO-DAY.

Victims of the Excursion Tragedy Now Number 915, of Whom Only 832 Have Thus Far Been Identified.

At the last moment this afternoon the Merritt-Chapman Wrecking Company decided to postpone the towing of the wreck of the Slocum to Erie Basin until after all had been made ready to start at 1 o'clock.

East River and on the Williamsburg and Brooklyn Bridges all afternoon awaiting the passage of the wreck of the death ship, and the melancholy sight would have been accorded them but for the fact that the hull was not considered tight enough to warrant such trip until repairs could be attended to. The tugs will pull the Slocum from off Flushing flats at 8 o'clock to-morrow morning. She should pass under Williamsburg and Brooklyn bridges from an hour to an hour and a half later. At Erie Basin she will be thoroughly searched for bodies and then broken up, after the removal of the Three bodies were recovered at Nort Brother Island to-day. To Fix Responsibility.

The Federal Grand Jury has been called for Thursday to consider the locum disaster and place the criminal

This announcement was made United States District-Attorney Burnett after a conference between Coroer Berry, Assistant District-Attorney Garvan and Mr. Burnett.
Mr. Burnett further said that h yould ask the Federal Grand Jury to find as many indictments as possible.

Those persons indicted will be charged with criminal negligence and will be prosecuted for violation of the

The District-Attorney's office oner Berry will assist Gen. Burnett in Exhausted from Hunger and the prosecution, and the evidence tained by them will be presented to Dodging Sheriff's Posse, Two the Federal Grand Jury in addition to that already secured by the Federal Remaining Members of the authorities.

No Action by Jerome.

No action will be taken by the County District-Attorney in the matter at present, the evidence so far se-cured pointing exclusively to violations KINGSTON, N. Y., June 25.-After an ill-night chase the remaining two members of the Italian gang who robbed Paymaster Longyear, of the Hudson prosecution outside the realm of Dis-River Bluestone Company, on Thursday trict-Attorney Jerome. trict-Attorney Jerome. were captured at Brown's Station to-

The Coroner's inquest will, in all robability, not be concluded until cided to take the jury on Monday to visit the wreck of the Slocum. pendently of the sheriff's posse in order hension of the highwaymen.

The captured men were in a pitiful condition from hunger and fatigue at-The list compiled by the police under Inspector Schmittberger of those days at Gibraltar, six days at Teneriffe they who were on board the Slocum at the time of the disaster was completed to the Care Verde Islands, when the Squadron would sail on the seventeenth When capwere identified by bank officials as haying been paid to the Bluestone Company the day before the robbery.

The fact that $600 is still missing leads the officers to befieve that at least one member of the gang is still at large.

All four captives refuse to divulse turned over to Commissioner McAdoo. It includes the name and fate of every man, woman and child that sailed on the excursion.

Inspector Schmittberger said that the report would show that between 1,800 and 1,900 persons were on the Slocum, and that of these 300 of the survivors were injured and about 400 escaped without injury. For the canvass by the police in compiling this list agents were used at Philadelphia, Washington, Balti-more, Albany and a great many other cities named as the homes of victims of the disaster.

Photos Aid Identification.

Arrest and Sentence of Annie victims buried by the city a number have since been identified by means of Stein, Unfortunate Woman the photographs which were taken as Caught on Street, Calls Forth which are now held at the East Fifth street police station. Rebuke from Justice Kelly.

Among the bodies identified by these photographs and from pieces of the Supreme Court Justice Kelly, sitting in Brooklyn, to-day ordered Annie Stein, of No. 248 West Thirty-seventh street, discharged from the Bedford Reformatory, whence she had been sentenced, on June 10 last, by Magistrate Crane, in Jefferson Market Police Court. In commenting on the case Justice Kelly took occasion to so that he never had heard before of such unusual proceedings as characterized it.

Annie Stein, according to the evidence of the Supreme Court, in the Supreme Court, in Supreme Co lothing taken from them was that of hefore of such unusual proceedings as characterized it.

Anne Stein, according to the evidence submitted in the Supreme Court, had been arrested at 1 o'clock in the morning of June 10 by Policeman Dolan, of the West Thirtieth street station. A few hours later, on the affidavit of Dolan that she was a disorderly person, she was arraigned before Magistrate Crane, and, without counsel and apparently only after the briefest hearing, sentenced to serve three years in the Reformatory.

"The reformation of the unfortunate class to which this woman is said to belong," declared Jug-yee Kelly in rendering his decision, "as a laudable object which society has been grappling with down the centuries, but it will never oe accomplished by violating the Constitution or the rights which the Constitution transities to all citizens to a fair trail by jury.

"The arrest of this woman at 1 o'clock in the morning; her arraignment, without counsel or an opportunity to call witnesses to testify in her behalf; her hearing, based, it would appear, entirely upon the affidavit of the Constitution or the rights which should appear, entirely upon the affidavit of the Constitution or believance, and the province of mercury. The Coroner will have been grapping and the New York Stock Exchange will turn over $1,001 on Monday and the New York Stock Exchange will turn over $1,001 on Monday and the New York Stock Exchange will turn over $1,001 on Monday and the New York Stock Exchange will turn over $1,001 on Monday and the New York Stock Exchange will turn over $1,001 on Monday and the New York change change hand the New York Stock Exchange will turn over $1,000 on the nor illed step of blood poisoning as a result of the Bolour disaster. Coroner Msy Lose Arm.

Coroner William O'Gorman is in danger of blood poisoning as a result of the Bolour disaster. He handled most of the bodies are recovered at North Erother Island, and although in done the move of the bodies Island, and although in done the move of the second finger of his right hand while re witnesses to testify in her behalf; her hearing, based, it would appear, entirely upon the affidavit of eve policeman, are things repugnant to the Constitution and spirit of the law.

"Magistrate Crane had no right to sentence this unfortunate on the charge that he did. The proper charge would have been vagrancy and even then she was entitled to a trial by a jury and all her rights under the law.

"I order this woman discharged."

The following contributions have been

The following contributions have bee

FAIRBANKS SPEAKS TIPS PARKER ON ON HOMEWARD TRIP

Vice-Presidential Candidate on Leaving Chicago Arranges for Stops on the Way to Indianapolis.

CHICAGO. June 25.—Senator Fair-banks, Vice-Presidential nominee, left Chicago this afternoon for his home in Indianapolis, where a demonstration will be made in his honor to-night. Accom panying the Senator were Postmaster Gen. Henry C. Payne, and Mrs. Payne, George B. Cortelyou, Chairman of the Republican National Committee: D. M. tamsdell. Sergeant-at-Arms of the Inited States Senate: Mrs. Fairbanks. Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fairbanks and Fred Fairbanks. The party occupied a special car on the regular Big Four

The Senator was schedul a to make a at Fowler, where Senator Fairbanks was expected to speak for five minutes. A stop of twenty minutes was arranged Senator McCarren and other Der

BRIGAND CAMP LIFE MADE CAPTIVE ILL

TANGIER, June 25 .- Mr. Perdicarls is ndisposed as the result of his recent experiences while a prisoner with Mr PARIS, June 25.—The Foreign Office has received a despatch from the French Minister at Tangler confirming the press despatches last night announcing the arrival there yesterday evening of Messrs. Perdicaris and Varley, escorted by Mouley All and Mouley Ahned, the Shercefs of Wazan.

The latter fact, it is claimed, shows that French diplomatic efforts brought about the captives' release. WASHINGTON, June 25 .- As Perdi-caris and Varley have been returned to their home in Tangler the Navy Department to-day cabled orders to Rear Admiral Chadwick to proceed on his cruise according to the original programme, suggesting that he go through of the federal laws, which places the coast of Africa en route to the South Atlantic station.

At the same time a cable message was received from Rear-Admiral Chadwick suggesting that his squadron Tuesday, Coroner Berry having de- leave Tangler for Gibraltar Monday and proposing an itinerary which con-Genoa, the other ships remaining three the Cape Verde Islands, when the squadron would sail on the seventeenth for Cape Town, remaining there two weeks and reaching odmitevideo on the date proposed by the original itinerary. It was stated at the Navy Department that he further orders would be sent Admiral Chadwick and that he would be left to proceed by whichever route he preferred.

Rear Admiral Jewell, commanding the European squadron, which has been at Tangler with Admiral Chadwick's comand, is under the immediate command of fear Admiral Barker, commanding the North Atlantic squadron now en route to Piracus anud will proceed as eh may direct, the original programme being that the two squadrons remain together throughout the European cruise of the battleship squadron.

KILLED BY GAS IN THE STEVENS HOUSE

Police Found No Evidence of Attempted Suicide, However, and Believe that Daly's Death Was Accidental.

Timothy Daly, who was found late n Thursday afternoon unconscious in a room in the Stevens House from inhaling illuminating gas, died to-day in the Hudson Street Hospital.

The police, who found no evidences of attempted suicide in the room, have the case recorded as accidental. Daly's address. No. 471 West One Hundred and Fortieth street, according to the police, was taken from the hotel register and its accuracy is doubtful, as the handwriting might be construed to mean almost anything. The hotel people say that Daly arrived in New York on a European stamer on the day he was found unconscious. He was evidently a laborer.

SUNSHINE for the coffee wreck

POSTUM

as 10 days' trial proves

Get the little book, "The Road to Wel ville," in each pkg. World's Fair exhibit, Space 103, Agri-juitural Building.

SECOND BALLOT

Elliot Danforth Declares Cary Two Roll Calls Will Be Necessary to Nominate the Judge at St. Louis.

HILL COMPLETES PLANS AND RETURNS TO ALBANY.

Efforts Are Being Made to Secure Control of the National Committee and the Committee on Credentials.

"Judge Parker will be nominated on the second ballot," said ElNot Dannumber of speeches between here and the second ballot," said Elliot Dan-Indianapolis, the first stop being made forth to-day. The statement was significant in view of Mr. Danforth's recent conferences with David B. Hill.

A stop of twenty minutes was arranged to be made at Lafayette, where a delegation from Minneapolis will meet the Senator.

From Lafayette, the party will travel in a special train, and stops will be made at Colfax. Thornton, Lebanon and Zionville, reaching Indianapolis at 7.20 P. M. The Indianapolis demonstration will be of non-partisan character, a gathering of home people, of neighbors and friends.

Addresses will be made by Mayor Holzman and other prominent citizens.

candidate in sight who so nearly controls the situation."

It is known that at the conference with Hill plans were discussed for the capturing of the National Committee will have the naming of the temporary chairman. Attention is also being paid to the selection of the Committee on Credentials, which will hear all contests. As the only contesting aclegations will be among Hearst men, the control of the Committee on Credentials will be most imporant.

None of those participating in the Hill conference at the Hoffman House would discuss the action taken. They simply Perdicaris, Just Released with Varley, Is Suffering from His Experiences While Held for Ransom by Raisuli.

TANGLER June 25 - Mr. Perdicarle is 15 or 16 or 1

SLIGHT FIRE IN HOSPITAL

the old Mount Sinal Hospital on Lex-ington avenue, between Sixty-sixth and Sixty-seventh streets. Men were re-

Scrambled eggs (not cooked too much) with "FORCE" makes a pretty good breakfast. Try it one of these morn-

Three eggs, one-half cup "FORCE," one-half cup milk, pepper, salt. Beat the eggs until light, and to them add the milk, "FORCE," and seasonings. Turn into hot buttered omelet-pan and stir until the eggs are firm. Serve at once on a hot platter.

Coward Shoe

That Troublesome Bunion The Coward Bunion Shoe just wilt for it. Made on our genuine Bunion Last." Fits foot everywhere; especially roomy over enlarged joint.

The shoe that saves most bunion

SOLD NOWHERE ELSE

JAMES S. COWARD, 268-274 Greenwich St., near Warren St., N. Y. Mail Orders Filled. SEND FOR CATALOGUE

Was a Valuable Exhibit of the comfort and rest for the lumbermen weekly by the New York World. This

(From a Photograph Taken Especially for the New York World's "Exposition Art Portfolios.") Lumbermen of the Country.

Country of the lumbermen of the lumbermen of the policy.

Country of the pounts tributes a country the redwood, the cypress, and other associations deatistic value. Each portfolio contains stateen splendid engravings made fry.

Although the regular price of these pounts of the fair.

Although the regular price of these pounts of the fair.

Although the regular price of these pounts of the fair.

Although the fair.

Although the readweational and artistic value. Each portfolio sisted each pounts of the fair.

Altho

ARTIST CHRISTY ALDERMAN BRENNER IN POLICE COURT

Magistrate Orders Investigation | He and Charles F. Hall Arrested for Assault on a Cabman, but Magistrate Decides that They Were Justified.

slip. The prisoners were released or station-house bonds. According to the cabman's story

Returns Telephones and Tele-

TWELVE HURT IN CAR CRASH of the Victims in Chicago Trolley Collision Will Die.

LAST OF ROBBERS

INHOLD-UPCAUGHT

day by Frank P. Elmendorf and Chauncey Leas, who had started out indeto get the reward offered for the appre-

Gang Are Taken.

CHICAGO, June 25.-Twelve or more persons were injured, some fatally, in a collision between two street cars to-day. The cars were crowded with pas-sengers and there were a number of narrow escapes from death.